

http://cfpub.epa.gov/compliance/sendmail/add_tc.cfm

Last updated on Friday, December 4th, 2009.

Compliance and Enforcement

You are here: EPA Home Compliance & Enforcement Report an Environmental Violation
Information Submitted

Report an Environmental Violation - Information submitted

Thank you for submitting information on a possible environmental violation. The information will be reviewed by EPA enforcement personnel. This notice will be the only response you will receive regarding your submission. Due to the sensitive manner in which enforcement information must be managed by EPA, we can not provide status reports or updates regarding any submission we receive through the Report an Environmental Violation form.

Back to Report an Environmental Violation page

Your Name:	sam monet
Your Email:	monets001@hawaii.rr.com
Your Address:	1741 ala wai blvd #98
Your City:	honolulu
Your State:	Hawaii
Your Zip:	96815
Your Phone:	808-2581611
Suspected Violation Date:	12/1/2009
Suspected Violator Name:	state of hawaii, department of land and natural resources
Suspected Violator Address:	ala wai yacht harbor, waikiki, oahu, hawaii
Suspected Violator City:	honolulu
Suspected Violator State:	Hawaii
Suspected Violator Zip:	96815
Still Occurring:	yes
Notified State DEP/DEQ/DEM:	no
Characterized incident as:
Intent:	Intentional

Type:	Release
Media:	Water
Entity:	Government/Military
Description of incident or hazard:	state of hawaii has dumped, stored and contiues to allow the leaking hazardous waste materials, lead based paints, battery acid, gas, diesel fuels etc, at a former boat yard at the Ala Wai Yacht Harbor, in Waikiki, Island of Oahu,. I will email you the pdf file of pictures
Specific Directions:	ala moana blvd, waikiki, next to the prince hotel in the ala wai small boat harbor, land owner state of hawaii, the site has pot holes that leach the hazardous waste directly into the water table and the ocean